

Canadian Association
on Gerontology

Association
canadienne
de g erontologie

TO : Membership of the Canadian Association on Gerontology
RE : CALL FOR NOMINATIONS TO THE CAG BOARD OF DIRECTORS
DATE : June 4, 2010

Dear CAG Member:

We are seeking nominations to the CAG Board of Directors.

According to Bylaw 7.7: The President, Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for two years and shall not hold the same position for more than two consecutive two-year periods. No person shall serve on the Board of Directors for more than four consecutive two-year periods, after which a period of at least two years must elapse before re-election or re-appointment to the Board of Directors in any capacity.

The slate will be presented at the next CAG Annual General Meeting (AGM), December 4, 2010 in Montr al, Qu bec. The new Board members take office in December 2010 after the AGM.

The following positions are open for nominations:

OFFICERS:

President
Vice-President

DIVISIONAL REPRESENTATIVES:

Social Sciences
Psychology
Education

Status of current Members of the Board of Directors whose term of office ends December 2010:

Officers:

President

Neena Chappell, PhD (2008-2010): Completing second year of first term. Is eligible for another term.

Vice-President

Fran ois B eland, PhD (2008-2010): Completing second year of first term. Is eligible for another term.

Divisional Representatives:

Social Sciences: Sherry Dupuis, PhD (2006-2010): Completing second year of second term. Is not eligible for another term.

Psychology: Maggie Gibson, PhD (2008-2010): Completing second year of first term. Is eligible for another term.

Education: Kathleen Cruttenden, PhD (2008-2010): Completing second year of first term. Is eligible for another term.

Status of Other Board Members:

OFFICERS:

Secretary Treasurer: Joseph Tindale, PhD, (2008-2011)

DIVISIONAL REPRESENTATIVES:

Health and Biological Sciences: Kathy McGilton, PhD (2009-2011)
Social Policy and Practice: Penny MacCourt, PhD (2007-2011)

CANADIAN JOURNAL ON AGING:

Editor-in-Chief Mark Rosenberg, PhD (2004-2010)

All members in good standing of the Association are eligible to nominate candidates for the board positions. Nominations must be submitted with a letter of acceptance by the candidate as well as a brief biographical profile (in both English and French, if possible).

Nominations must be returned to the undersigned on the official Nomination Form (as attached and available on the CAG website), dated on or before August 4, 2010 by mail, fax or e-mail (scanned version) to:

Sandra Hirst, PhD
Chair of the Nominating Committee
Canadian Association on Gerontology
222 College Street, Suite 106
Toronto, Ontario M5T 3J1
fax: (416) 978-4771
email: contact@cagacg.ca

Sandra Hirst, PhD
Chair, Nominating Committee